School Mission Statement

We at the Ralph Bunche School are a diverse, proactive and collaborative community dedicated to achieving academic excellence using standard's based instruction. Our mission is to create a nurturing and supportive environment governed by a cohesive bond between the teacher, parent and student in order to recognize and cultivate each child's individual strengths. At every interaction, we strive to create well-rounded, productive citizens who are well informed, self-confident, successful and active participants in the society in which they live.

Principal's Statement

P.S. 132, the Ralph Bunche School, is a wonderful place to learn because it is nestled in an atmosphere of cooperation, affirmation, and positive reinforcement. The academic environment fosters self confidence and creates a student body that is eager to share knowledge, experiences and participate in the many-faceted activities offered. Our extended school family contributes to our success in many ways: through social and cultural activities; fund raising efforts; and reinforcement of academic, social, and ethical standards held by our highly experienced staff.

Special Academic Programs

Daily Intensive Academic Intervention Services. Early Grade Reduction. Gifted and Talented. Peer Tutoring. Three Computer Labs dedicated to Literacy (Creative Writing-Magazine Publications), Mathematics (Computer Assisted Instruction), and Science.

Extracurricular Activities

Afterschool Academics, Chess Club, Chorus, Common Cents Committee, Conflict Resolution Groups, Dance, Drama, Fit-for-Life, Future Corps, Game Night, Instrumental Music, Multicultural Clubs, Pajama Party Night, Penny Harvest, and Student Government.
