School Mission Statement

At P.S. 136 we are "Building Educated Leaders for Life."

Our school community endeavors to be life-long learners, concerned citizens, and leaders for excellence and equity in education. We believe that every child can learn and attain high levels of achievement. The P.S. 136 community through informed collaboration is providing a safe, nurturing, creative, and technologically advanced learning environment in which each and every individual is able to develop their unique talents, to excel in all disciplines, and to be productive participants in our diverse world.

The mission of the staff, parents, and community supporters of P.S. 136 is to provide a rich setting for the intellectual, physical, emotional, and social growth of all of our students with 'no child left behind.' To this end we will use a variety of

Principal's Statement

P. S. 136 represents a community of learners committed to excellence in education for all our constituents. Our purpose is to teach and model sound academic skills, to develop and reinforce moral values, to build self-esteem and encourage initiative in all our students. By instilling an obsession with literacy, we hope to make children life-long lovers of reading. We want our students to enjoy learning as they achieve academic and social success. We provide a nurturing environment that includes home and community as well as the school setting. Parent workshops and cultural trips are encouraged in order to develop strong parent/child relationships.

Special Academic Programs

Our focus is on small group instruction and writing in all curricula areas. Students engage in computer-assisted instruction, dance, theatre and visual arts. The Building Essential Literacy program and Reading Recovery are two of the interventions in place that provide students with much needed support.

Extracurricular Activities

After and during school programs in literacy, mathematics, science, chess, technology, music recording studio, theatre, basketball, dance club, and enrichment. Family Day, Movie Nights, Dance Festivals, Book, Science and Mathematics Fairs, Contests, Student Council, Senior Week are a sampling of the school activities we provide.

Community Support

We have partnerships with the local Democratic Club, Ballet Tech, Verizon Telecom Pioneers, Community Service Society, Black Spectrum Theatre, the Police Athletic League, Learning Leaders, You Can Go To College, college student teacher programs, and high school internship programs.

Parent/School Support

Our productive PTA is a partner in all aspects of the school community supporting programs such as building classroom libraries, technology, special clubs, assembly programs and weekend family activities. Parent workshops are conducted in standards, test preparation, all curriculum areas, and parenting skills.
