School Mission Statement

*The mission of The Edward Kennedy Ellington School is to provide an atmosphere where school, parents and community work together for children's success. *We instill in our students the love of learning and encourage them to become lifelong learners.*

Principal's Statement

Welcome to P.S.140Q where it takes an entire village to raise a child. At P.S.140, we afford our students excellent academic programs as well as enrichment opportunities in sports, and performing arts.*We are proud of our community based programs and enjoy our supportive PTA. * Memorable activities that are unique to our school give students shared experiences as they progress. The offerings are: Career Day, International Day, Science Fair, Social Studies Museum, and Literacy Fair. *We are looking forward to continued success.

Special Academic Programs

There are double block periods of literacy and mathematics. Social studies is being fulfilled with International Day across the grades. Students select a unit of study and integrate the culture, education, food, economics, language and arts. In May, we celebrate with parents. Each year, we visit various countries and learn informative facts.

Extracurricular Activities

Extracurricular activities entice students to enrich and immerse themselves. * The Ellington Strings, The Dukes Volleyball Team, Ellington School Chorus, EKE Tappers, Inspirational Chorus, Visual Arts, Ellington Theater and the Ellington Enrichment Academy.

Community Support

We have a partnership with: NYC Learning Leaders; LINC Inc; The Queens Public Library; 144 Music & Arts; Leap; Ballet Tech; the Leadership Program, Roy Wilkins Park, Amistad Day Care Center, Boys & Girls Scouts of America, ABENY, Jamaica Day Care Center, The Jamaica Rotary Club, Farm For City Kids and P.A.L.

Parent/School Support

The school holds a Saturday Parent Curriculum to address curriculum, the standards, promotional criteria and grade expectations. *We also sponsor a Monthly "Coffee with the Principal" to discuss recent updates. * Leadership workshops for parents are held throughout the year.
