School Mission Statement

P.S. 199 is committed to provide a safe, child-centered environment which offers students the maximum opportunity to learn and achieve academic success. Our mission is to help our students acquire literacy and become critical thinkers through a curriculum that is rich, balanced and aligned with performance standards. Our educational programs foster social concepts and multicultural perspectives that students need to become productive members of a diverse society. We acknowledge the importance of the arts and community involvement in the education of our students; therefore we strive to engage in partnerships with arts institutions and achieve a positive rapport with community-based organizations. Collaborative efforts will ensure achievement of our goals.

Principal's Statement

PS 199 offers its community of readers and writers a print-rich learning environment that supports strong literacy skills, standards-based education and lifelong learning. In collaboration with Columbia University's Teachers College, reading and writing workshops are implemented in classrooms to enhance, support and nurture students' literacy skills. Professional development activities engage teachers in observing, practicing, and reflecting upon effective instructional strategies. The "Book of the Month" project supports our motto: "A school where excellence in education and values go hand in hand."

Special Academic Programs

Programs include Teachers College Reading and Writing Project, AIS Reading Programs, Cross Age Tutoring in collaboration with the High School of Applied Communications, Computer Enhanced Literacy Intervention Services, Mathematics Program, Project Arts partnerships, extended year program and extended day programs including CBO/TASC programs.

Extracurricular Activities

Monitor safety squad, computer club, extended day programs, enrichment and recreation programs, Project Arts partnerships, gardening club, and a music program (violins).

Community Support

Partnerships with LaGuardia Community College, Community Board 2, Sunnyside Community Center, NYC Learning Leaders, Music Outreach, Student Interns from LaGuardia Community College, Queens College and Columbia University, LEAP, Making Books Sing and Young Audiences.

Parent/School Support

Parent Coordinator, Bilingual Specialist, ESL classes, Learning Leaders Program, parent workshops, PTA school fund drives, PTA-sponsored end-of-year activities, parent membership on school committees.
