School Mission Statement

Our goal is to educate all of our children to their maximum potential in a nurturing and caring environment. We celebrate our unique differences while focusing on the development of academic skill, creativity, responsibility and citizenship including cognitive, creative and social growth. P.S. 225Q functions as a team of teachers, staff members, parents, students and administrators. By cooperatively working together, we make a difference.

Principal's Statement

P.S. 225Q's goal is to educate our children to their maximum potential socially, emotionally and academically. We are a Pre-K through Grade Seven school. Our focus is to educate children, while nurturing their social and emotional growth

Special Academic Programs

Universal Pre-Kindergarten, Early Grade Class Size Reduction, Project Arts, Teacher/Student book clubs, Reading First.

Extracurricular Activities

We provide SES services for children in grades K through 8. We also have an after school ELA program for our Fourth Grade students, as well as non-academic programs run through the Rockaway Action Center.

Community Support

Parent/School Support

We have Learning Leaders; parent volunteers who are involved in all aspects of school life, including fund raising, school functions, and participating in district parent workshops and conferences. We have an active PAC which helps connect school and the home.
