School Mission Statement

Educational and social achievement will be fostered in the outstanding legacy of our school namesake, Susan B. Anthony. As an empowered school our tradition of excellence will be fortified by our continual status as a leader in preparing students for the specialized high schools. Through collaborative teamwork, superior programming, standards based instruction, innovative teaching practices and extraordinary efforts; our students will exceed every measurable state standard. No child will be left behind as administrators, teachers, parents, and students join together and walk down the path of excellence.

Principal's Statement

The Susan B. Anthony Academy has emerged as the District leader in instructional innovation. Our advanced curriculum will challenge students to synthesize classroom instruction with real life situations. The school has an excellent history of preparing students for enrollment at the premiere schools in New York State. In fact, our school not only sent more students to Specialized High Schools than any single school in the District, we also sent more then them all combined. We are setting a standard of excellence.

Special Academic Programs

Arista National Honor Society, Specialized High School Exam Preparation course, Talented and Gifted Advanced Coursework, Kaplan Advanced Reading and Mathematics Afterschool Program, Kiwanis Builders Club, Annual Academic Awards Banquet, Scholars Lounge, Student of the Month.

Extracurricular Activities

Our school offers "second to none" extracurricular programs. We also feature our Sports and Arts Extended Day Program, a nationally recognized Drama and Dance Theater Troup, Chess club, cheerleading, step team, and Teen Center. Our Girls and Boys Basketball team continue to be ranked #1 in all of Queens.

Community Support

Our Grant Writing team has secured over a 1 million dollar commitment from various organizations for the next five years. This makes I.S 238 a leader in working with private organizations. In addition, we have 29 partnerships including the following: NY Junior Tennis League, The Sports and Arts Foundation, and the Kiwanis Builders Club.

Parent/School Support

PTA meetings, classroom volunteers, assistance with field trips, Schoolwide Project participation, extracurricular activities and Awards Dinners. Provides ESL, continuing education, bilingual programs, parenting skills workshops and library, test sophistication workshops, and extensive parent newsletters.
