School Mission Statement

The RFK Community Middle School offers a program to meet the needs of multicultural students ages 10-14. Their potential will be achieved through a program that recognizes varied learning styles and provides flexible environments to meet the needs of every learner. We provide numerous opportunities for exploration within a balanced curriculum through standards driven instruction.

Principal's Statement

We offer a program designed to meet the individual needs of our students, and provide for the unique transition between Elementary School and High School. To address the unique needs of adolescents, RFK has developed programs to direct student energy and vitality toward the realization of their potential. Community Service Learning is performed by all youngsters weekly. Students benefit from personalized classroom interaction and cooperative learning. The staff facilitates active, hands-on learning. Computer technology is integrated across the curriculum.
