School Mission Statement

Long Island City High School provides a rigorous, yet nurturing, high level, yet supportive, academic environment for its students. As a school with a successful history of preparing youngsters for high achievement, Long Island City High School ensures that all its students take courses which challenge their minds & prepare them for the twenty-first century. In addition to encouraging four years of study in math, science, & a foreign language, we encourage active study of art, music, culinary arts, and technology. Consequently, students supplement the traditional academics with a healthy balance of aesthetic and athletic activities. Strong emphasis is also placed on the values of integrity, honor, and character.

Principal's Statement

Long Island City High School is housed in a state-of-the-art 21st century building. We offer Honors, Advanced Placement, & College Preparatory Programs as well as additional academic support programs for students who need them. As the "school of choice for the 21st century", Long Island City High School is committed to high educational standards that combine the pragmatic and the aesthetic. Our goal is to prepare our students to make them highly competitive for college & work. Our extensive & broad range of courses provides an unmatched range of academic and aesthetic opportunities for all students.

Special Academic Programs

15 Advanced Placement Classes; Honors Academy with College Preparatory Classes in all academic subjects; Culinary Arts; Opera Institute; Orchestra Academy; Computer Science & Technology Ed.; Humanities & the Arts; over 30 advanced courses in art, music, computers, theater, & technology education

Extracurricular Activities

We have over 20 multicultural & interdisciplinary clubs, over 20 teams, and an ARISTA Society that continues to grow. We also present Winter & Spring concerts & art exhibits as well as Fall and Spring dramatic & musical productions.

Community Support

City University of New York-LaGuardia Community College & Queens College, Elmhurst Hospital Center, Metropolitan Opera, Careers in Culinary Arts Program (C-CAP), Corporate Mentoring Program, & Assorted Scholarships and other support from outside organizations.

Parent/School Support

Parents are actively involved through the Parents' Association and the School Leadership Team.
