School Mission Statement

The Baccalaureate School for Global Education (BSGE) is a public middle and secondary school dedicated to achieving academic excellence and developing, in each student, a positive self-image, love of learning, respect for others, and reverence for life. We are committed to holistic education, i.e. the nurturing of the intellectual, social, physical, and creative development of each person. Our goal is to foster a spirit of imaginative independent thinking, respect for other cultures, consciousness of global citizenship. We seek to develop an understanding of the interdependence and unity of human beings based on the recognition of our differences. Our school community, through our thoughts and actions, can make the world a better place. It is the mission of BSGE that each of our students will become an International Baccalaureate Diploma candidate.
