School Mission Statement

Public School 5 is dedicated to provide a quality instructional program in a safe and secure environment. Achievement levels for all students will increase through varied and challenging academic programs and assessment techniques that support and improve students' learning. The education of each student is a cooperative effort among staff, children, parents and community. Together, we will nurture social, emotional, physical and intellectual growth to enable our students to surpass academic standards and be caring and productive citizens involved in community activities.

Principal's Statement

Public School 5 fosters a vision that supports a standards-based instructional program geared to improve student achievement. We welcome and utilize resources of family and community to enrich the education of our students. We recognize that students learn in a variety of ways and provide instructional strategies that reflect an understanding of diverse learning modalities. Administration and staff nurture a positive climate to promote creativity, high expectations and seek to establish habits of lifelong learning within each student.
