School Mission Statement

At P.S. 14, we are determined to create a school that deepens the learning of all students. We are building on a unity of purpose within the entire school community and create practices and activities that are dedicated towards accelerated progress. We depend on the talent of our staff, students, and parents to gather information, make decisions, and build incentives for success at all levels. We are on a journey to empower our students to become lifelong learners. Our staff maintains high standards of achievement for all students and incorporates the most effective instructional practices in the educational field today.

Principal's Statement

P.S. 14 is a diverse school community that shares a set of values, beliefs, and attitudes that contribute to creating a climate for powerful learning. Students, parents, and staff participate in this journey towards success. Our school has demonstrated a willingness and commitment to be creative, reflective and collaborative. This year, we will focus on achieving high standards through emphasis on meeting the individual needs of all students, and incorporating small group instruction to support at risk students, including English Language Learners and the Special Needs population.

Special Academic Programs

We are increasing our classroom libraries with various genres of literature as part of our Balanced Literacy Program. Our instructionally program is based around the Reading and Writing Workshop Model. Every grade focuses on writing across the curriculum, accountable talk, taking Running Records, analyzing assessments and conferencing.

Extracurricular Activities

The following activities are presently happening: Children of the Village Dance Group, Studio in the School Art Program, Band, Chorus, Student Government, Literacy through the Arts, a Basketball Team and Steppers are slated to begin in winter 2005.

Community Support

We are in affiliation with The March of Dimes Foundation, Staten Island Children's Museum in collaboration with the Howard Hugh's Grant, College of Staten Island Teaching Scholars, The Hungerford School, S.I. Council for Domestic Violence, Staten Island Mental Health Society, and The Staten Island Chamber Music Players Inc.

Parent/School Support

Parents are encouraged to participate in our Parents as Reading Partners activities the first Friday of each month. Monthly workshops are offered to increase understanding of ELA, Math, Writing and Testing Strategies. Understanding The New Chancellor's Initiatives in Reference to Standards-Based Instruction; Formation of Rubrics, are included.
