School Mission Statement

P.S. 20 is committed to educating the whole child. We believe that using varied methodologies, techniques and strategies will afford all children the opportunity to reach their full emotional, social and academic potential. We are committed to educating and encouraging students to achieve high standards of excellence in all curriculum areas. We strongly believe in the importance of parent involvement in the educational process. Communication and cooperation among students, parents, staff and administration is seen as crucial to promoting the success of all students. Respect for oneself and others is a fundamental philosophy at P.S. 20. A strong emphasis is placed on awareness, acceptance, concern and compassion for all people.

Principal's Statement

P.S. 20, also known as The Christy J. Cugini Port Richmond School, was renamed in memory of the former district superintendent of District 31. The children of P.S. 20 are educated and nurtured by a devoted and diligent staff. P.S. 20 teachers strive to provide meaningful, vibrant and creative instructional strategies to meet the needs of all children. We hope to inspire our children to become lifelong learners and good citizens. P.S. 20 is the recipient of a Reading First Grant.
