School Mission Statement

We are dedicated to educating the whole child. We seek to offer a comprehensive, challenging curriculum that meets the needs and demands of modern society. We teach the basics, with a strong emphasis on reading, writing and problem solving skills. We encourage dramatic expression, artistic creativity, physical fitness, scientific exploration, and computer literacy. We empower all constituencies - students, staff and parents. P.S. 36 is a true community school.

Principal's Statement

Teachers, children and parents work together to make our slogan "P.S. 36 Measures Up To Excellence" a reality. We continue to meet and set new goals for mathematics and literacy. We are proud to provide a variety of learning environments designed to meet the needs of all students, including collaborative team teaching classes on all grade levels.

Special Academic Programs

Arts partners complement cluster instruction in the drama, visual arts and dance. P.S. 36 continues to provide a Band Program through the cluster program. The P.S. 36 Library/Media Center has become a favorite with students and staff. Students in Grades Three, Four and Five complete Applied Learning Projects each year.

Extracurricular Activities

Latchkey Program; After-school Center with numerous activities including tennis, painting, team sports, games, computer club.

Community Support

We have ongoing partnerships with Girl Scouts, Learning Leaders, Tottenville H.S. - Teachers of Tomorrow, CSI, Wagner College, St. John's University, and Reading Volunteers. We are establishing a new partnership with "Puppetry in Practice."

Parent/School Support

We have active parent involvement through PTA, Reading Volunteers, School Leadership Team. P.S. 36 offers parent workshops and family activities that include "Family Read Aloud," Harvest Fair, Health Fair, and Family Art projects. The Parent Coordinator is a welcome addition to our school. Our success is due in great part to our parental support.
