School Mission Statement

Public School 39 is dedicated to meeting the needs of every child. Our vision is to create an educational environment where children come to school because of their love of learning. Our Comprehensive Educational Plan is designed to challenge students in attaining high performance standards in meeting the demands of the 21st Century. Our curriculum, based on incorporating a multi-cultural approach, stresses the desired outcome that all students will acquire the skills, knowledge and the attitudes necessary for effective citizenship. As we strive to meet the needs of our students, we include within our curriculum, activities that stress exploration, creativity and the development of the whole child. We are also dedicated to having a school partnership with the parents of all our students so that they take a visible active role in their child's education.

Principal's Statement

At Public School 39 great pride is taken in providing our children with a well-rounded curriculum that considers all their academic and social needs. We celebrate our ethnic diversity by recognizing and encouraging the family traditions of our community. Our teachers reinforce the philosophy of our school motto, "P.S. 39: A Bridge to Success," by emphasizing the importance of obtaining a solid educational foundation to ensure a successful future. By encouraging a strong school-home relationship, we also emphasize the importance of parents being active partners in the education of their children.
