School Mission Statement

The entire P.S. 69 community including staff and parents will provide a safe, secure environment in which to educate and develop a self-confident individual competent in basic skills and able to function in a constantly changing technological environment. This child will be an independent, critical thinker and productive member of our diverse society.

Principal's Statement

Ours is a diverse school population served by a creative, caring staff committed to meeting the needs of all children. Our academics encompass many aspects including a balanced literacy approach to reading, hands-on math and science, computers, visual, theatrical and performing arts. Aside from academics, we focus on citizenship and children's respect for themselves and others with our Kids Involved in Nice Deeds Program. Our parents have been very involved in our school program through membership in our very active P.T.A., participation in our Reading Volunteer Program, and attendance in the various parent workshops provided by school staff.

Special Academic Programs

Our 1st grade Gifted & Talented Program. Artist of the Month, Book of the Month, participation in Buehler Space Program. 4th Grade Readers as Leaders, Holiday Show, Heart Show. Through Project Arts we will bring book making, puppetry, and ballroom dancing, and Dance in Education to our school. Media, automated library, and computer labs.

Extracurricular Activities

Latchkey; After School Center programs such as tennis, computers, drama, cheerleading, art, aerobics, painting, arts and crafts, creative writing, band, basketball, and dance. Our 5th grade ballroom dancers have been city finalists for the past 2 years!

Community Support

Parents as Reading Volunteers, Arista Tutoring from I.S.72, foreign language tutors from Port Richmond and Susan Wagner High School. We are fortunate enough to have the College of Staten Island Scholars and the Discovery Institute Program where student teachers work with all of our children across the grades. Coaches provide workshops for parents.

Parent/School Support

Through our active PTA, our Parent Coordinator and our School Leadership team our parents are involved in fund raising, yearbook publishing, our Comprehensive Educational Plan, and reading volunteers. Our school supports parents through many workshops about health, nutrition, academics, technology, assessments, and parenting skills.
