School Mission Statement

At the West Farms School (CS6X), we strive to provide a safe and "risk free" learning environment for our students. They will gain the academic and social skills to become life long learners, problem solvers and productive members of a global society.

Principal's Statement

Our professional staff is focused on fostering a vibrant and fruitful learning environment for our student community. We must build and sustain professional capacity! Our staff is encouraged to engage in extensive professional staff-development and sharing of educational strategies/techniques. Thus, we motivate our teachers to: read extensively; be "global and cerebral in thought"; apply student assessment tools and techniques effectively; model and share the "passion for learning"; become effective communicators with parent and guardians; to buttress our educational goals and facilitate parental input in our educational process.

Special Academic Programs

Mathematics through the Workshop Model, English as a Second Language Adult Saturday Program, Adult Saturday Computer Program, Project LEAP, Newton Learning Extended Day Program, Saturday Dance Program, Mathematics and Literacy Extended Day Program.

Extracurricular Activities

During the 2004-2005 School year, this school's non-academic activities included: Tennis, School Newspaper, Dance, Library Squad, and Musical Theatre.

Community Support

Children's Aid Society, Common Cents, Attendance Improvement and Dropout Prevention Program, Montefiore Hospital, Children's Aid Society, Counseling-in-Schools, LEAP, Princeton Review.

Parent/School Support

The School Leadership Team is committed to developing a Saturday Academy for all parents in the areas of English as a Second Language and Computer Education. In addition, our Parent Coordinator, Ms. Carmen Valle, serves as our liaison for parents and the community. Our Parent Association works closely with the administration and staff.
