School Mission Statement

The staff, parents, students and community members collaborate in developing each child's social, physical, emotional and academic growth. All adults are responsible for teaching literacy and higher order thinking skills. City and State performance standards are incorporated into daily lessons to assure that each student meets P.S. 16's high level of expectations. All P.S. 16 community members will instill in our children the traditional values of equality, respect, responsibility and the work ethic associated with learning. Our school motto (Living and Learning Together Through the 21st Century) exemplifies our collective vision.

Principal's Statement

To improve literacy in all subject areas, P.S. 16 has put greater emphasis on a range of tools, such as calculators, projectors, computers, libraries, manipulative and Experiments. P.S. 16 has a strong commitment to develop the multiple intelligences of our children. Our music program complement our core curriculum. Our foreign born students receive all the needed support to become literate New York citizens. Our special needs children are given many services, which foster their growth and development.

Special Academic Programs

An accelerated Language Arts program in Balanced Literacy is implemented on every grade. Expanded Libraries provide for a wide variety of genres and resources. Hands-On Science, Internet Access and Science Projects enrich our Science Program. AIS services are provided by our most experienced teachers teamed with the classroom teachers.

Extracurricular Activities

Peer mediation, Peer tutors, Saturday Academies, Family Math and Science Nights and Teacher Training Programs support our students, parents and staff.

Community Support

We have partnerships with the Mosholu Montefiore Community Center, the New Ballet School, and L.E.A.P.

Parent/School Support

Parents participate as monitors for our buses, aides for our children in classrooms, as our class moms or dads and as partners in our Family Math and Science nights. Parents are also on the Personnel Committee to hire new staff. Our School Leadership Team strives to construct tools to help our children achieve ever higher.
