School Mission Statement

It is the mission of P.S. 33 to promote a safe and enriched environment, where cultural diversity is celebrated and educational excellence is the norm. It is a community of learners where children and adults alike will thrive when they are appreciated, valued and encouraged to develop without limits.

To create a positive educational atmosphere

To ensure the ultimate educational experience

To enable all students to display appropriate social behavior

To ensure the safety and well-being of all students

To create an atmosphere of caring, concern, and respect among students, parents, and staff.

Principal's Statement

P.S. 33 is committed to an educational philosophy which nurtures and maximizes each child's potential for growth. The staff believes that each child is unique and can succeed. As facilitators we develop the child holistically, intellectually, physically, socially and emotionally. Our goal is to prepare our students for college. This goal can be attained when a cooperative partnership exists between parent, child and the school community. Parents play a key role in their child's educational success. Frequent visits and participation in school programs and activities are encouraged.

Special Academic Programs

Project Pactt extended day and Saturday reading & mathematics; English as a Second Language; Youth for Real Tutorial Program; Literacy LINK-Tigers Reading Program; James Monroe College Reading Program; New York Cares Tuesday's Tennis Program; New York Cares Saturday Buddy Reading Program; Dream Yards and Literacy Enhancement.

Extracurricular Activities

Activities included: Senior Patrol, Science & Computer Club, Spelling Bee, Art Club, Chorus & Dance Club, instruction in tennis, aerobics, gymnastics & netball; peer mediation and conflict resolution activities, basketball, tennis, Talent Show and Boy Scouts.
