School Mission Statement

Our general education, special education, ELL/LAU students, as well as our high achievers have academic, social and physical needs, which we address through comprehensive educational practices. The staff, parents, and the extended school community of P.S. 35X will continue to provide an environment where all children can learn, that respects individual differences, promotes high standards, and encourages each member of the entire school community to be an active learner. We prepare our students to be productive and responsible citizens in the technologically advanced society. We envision a community of confident learners prepared to meet an ever-changing complex society.

Principal's Statement

P.S. 35X proudly proclaims as its motto, "All Children Can Learn". Our commitment to this notion is evident in the scope and magnitude of our educational program. Art, Chess, Chorus, Physical Education, Dance, Junior Lego, Future City, and Robotics clubs are only some of the activities in which our students can participate in extended day programs. Family education programs are offered to parents, as we acknowledge that their participation is essential to the success of our educational programs.

Special Academic Programs

Our current special academic programs include Extended Day Academic Intervention Services, Extended Day and Early Morning ELA and Math Test Preparation, Student Mentoring, Saturday Academy, Advanced Math for third and fourth graders, ESL for our ELLs, and Project Arts.

Extracurricular Activities

We offer Chess, Visual Arts, Chorus, Dance, Physical Education, Junior Lego and Future City, Robotics, and Virtual Y extended day programs.

Community Support

We have an ongoing partnership with the following organizations: CCB, School of Law and Government, Mid Bronx Senior Citizen Council, American Chess Foundation, American Ballet, Carnegie Hall, Bronx Court System, YMCA, Bronx Lebanon Hospital, Wave Hill, Barnes and Noble My Own Book Fund, Junior Achievement, and Reading is Fundamental.
