School Mission Statement

The mission of C.S. 66 is to provide an environment which exemplifies high performance standards by promoting lifelong learning for all students. This will be achieved through a child-centered learning climate and an active partnership among parents, students, staff and the community.

Principal's Statement

C.S. 66, The School of Higher Expectations, is a PK - 5 School located in the Crotona Park East section of the Bronx. Our school is a learning community composed of approximately 550 students and 75 staff members. Our goal is to make great strides in student achievement through the incorporation of Balanced Literacy and Mathematics viewed through the lens of the Principles of Learning. We are firm believers in educating our students to accept responsibility for their community. We believe in service education. Students are taught that we are all interconnected, not just to the school but to the community and the world.

Special Academic Programs

Our school has launched a rigorous program of small group tutoring. Identified students receive instruction from licensed personnel during the school day. This year all students are participating in the 100 Book Challenge Program. We also have a partnership with a CBO, PHIPPS which runs an Ext.day program 5 days a week.

Extracurricular Activities

Student Council, LEGO Robotics, Saturday Sports Program, Hooked on Books, Guitar Club, Quilting Club, American Ballroom, Literacy Fair, Science Fair and numerous community service activities.

Community Support

C.S. 66 is proud of our affiliations with various community agencies. Local businesses are safe havens for our students. Students from Fannie Lou Hamer H.S. complete community service residencies within our school. Many local politicians have come to CS 66 to speak to our students.

Parent/School Support

Our Parent Coordinator monitors and ensures that our parental involvement program operates seamlessly. Some of our practices include: School Volunteers, Literacy Assistance, Class Chaperones, Security Volunteers, Parent Support Groups, Parent dance class, arts and crafts, as well as workshops in Math and Literacy, Health and Community Issues.
