School Mission Statement

Our mission is to provide a literate learning environment which respects our individual and cultural diversity. The school community will focus on enabling and challenging all students to achieve and to succeed. It is our goal to create an active and positive partnership among the staff, the parents and the community. We expect these efforts to result in children who reach their potential and become productive citizens.

Principal's Statement

P. S. 86 is a dynamic Pre-K - 6 elementary school serving 1,800 students. The school community strives to create a collaborative culture, where teams of teachers and school leaders work together to increase the quality of instruction resulting in higher student achievement. Teachers analyze each child's development through assessment and observation in all curriculum areas to determine the approach to maximize each student's success. Our commitment to shared decision-making, the dedication of the staff and the support of parents, allows P.S. 86 to achieve our primary goal, enabling every child to learn and to thrive at school.
