School Mission Statement

At Community School 102, Where Children Come First, we believe that through academic and enrichment programs, differentiated instruction, community support and parent involvement, we have created a collaborative community. Our learning environment will enable the students to meet the standards, reach their highest academic potential, become lifelong learners, and ultimately become productive citizens of the community and the world.

Principal's Statement

Community School #102X is currently in the second year of implementing two major grants: reading First (RF) and Comprehensive School Reform (CSR). Through these grants, along with balance Math, and ESL. Our PTA and Parent Coordinator collaborate on various initiatives.

Special Academic Programs

No Child Left Behind, SES - Supplemental Education Services, Saturday Prep, Peer Tutoring enhanced by art and music studios, and science, and a Technology Club. We have been identified as a Reading First School. We have also received a Comprehensive School Reform grant. We also have ESL, ELL and Dual Language programs.

Extracurricular Activities

Extended Day Programs, Technology and Saturday academies are available to help students improve Literacy, Technology and Math skills. These programs also have parent components to facilitate parents assisting their children at home.

Community Support

We have a partnership with Kips Bay Boys Club and we are diligently working towards partnering with business and military entities in the New York City arena.

Parent/School Support

Parent Coordinator, Extensive Parent Involvement programs include Family Literacy, Read-Alouds & N.Y.C. Parents as Leaders Volunteers before, during and after school. There is participation in all school, district and city events. School provides Family Math, Family Sciences, Mind Frames (ESL) and Monthly Parent Workshops in all subject areas.
