School Mission Statement

The students, staff and parents of the Parkchester School strive to meet the intellectual, emotional, social and physical needs of every child. Together, we will prepare our children to become lifelong learners and good citizens ready to meet high standards of excellence and the challenges which they will face in the future. All students will be educated, loved and nurtured. At the same time, we will develop within them self-confidence and independence which will enable them to move to their next level of education.

Principal's Statement

The Parkchester School - Public School 106 - is a neighborhood K - 4 school with approximately 1,000 students. The school is multicultural. Students and staff represent in excess of 25 ethnicities. The school day begins at 8:10 A.M. and ends at 2:30 P.M. Due to the overcrowding situation, we have ten portable classroom units. Our school is located in the Parkchester South Condominium Complex.

Special Academic Programs

Bilingual and English as a Second Language in grades 3/4; Chicago Math program in grades K-4. 100th Book Challenge grades 2/3. Implementation of a balanced Literacy reading program by using many interdisciplinary level books. During this school year some of our third/fourth grade students participated in the region's Robotic Team.

Extracurricular Activities

Girl Scout Program, Saturday Academy, Student Council grades 2-4, Junior Achievement Curriculum, extended test prep programs for third and fourth grade students, & ESL parent Sat. Program. Some of our students participate in the St. Raymond's Outreach tutoring after school program.

Community Support

We had the following programs: Cooperative Education, NYS Mentoring, Scholarships/Donations, NYC School Volunteers, Chess in the Schools, New York Cares Day and Junior Achievement Day.

Parent/School Support

Our school provides parents with workshops during the academic school year in reading, math, geography, science, technology and multicultural education. Through the support services of our guidance counselor and parent coordinator outreach is done to provide support with housing referrals and other interventions.
