School Mission Statement

At I.S. 125 we strive to maximize each student's potential. We ensure that each student possesses the fundamental knowledge and skills necessary to participate in a technologically complex society. In pursuing this mission, we prepare our students for higher education, develop responsibility and build self-esteem. To accomplish this mission and achieve these goals, the school provides the work environment, the tools and support services necessary to ensure that the professional staff can fulfill their duties with expertise and passion. We value the potential of each young adult, and strive to position them to successfully compete as productive members of our society. The school will continue to be a forward thinking and innovative leader in developing "Lifelong Learners" and responsible citizens.

Principal's Statement

Henry Hudson Intermediate School 125 is serving the community by providing the students and parents with the skills necessary to participate in a technologically complex society. The Parents Association and Community Based Organizations have worked together in conjunction with the school staff of Henry Hudson to make our school an elite middle school in the Bronx. Next year we will be forming smaller learning communities. Our school will be divided into four academies: A Fifth grade "Global Academy", and three vertical 6th, 7th, and 8th grade academies; Academy of Cultural Enlightenment (ACE), Descartes, and Thurgood Marshall Academy(TMA).

Special Academic Programs

Programs that enhance academic achievement are: High School Regents courses in Math A, Earth Science, Foreign Language and U.S. History In addition six labs including Quick Reads, "Fluency Coach", "Orchard" Writing Process and Mathematics. Aslo, the SES after school (Socratic Learning). The Saturday Academy and the Saturday STAR Program for ELLs.

Extracurricular Activities

Extracurricular Activities are provided for our students with the following programs, "Swett Arts Academy" which includes woodshop, dance, percussion, chair, photography and chess. In addition there is boys and girls basketball team Perwinkle (Drama through the Arts), and the Robotics Team.

Community Support

I.S. 125 works collaboratively with various programs including City Center Theater Development Program, New York Historical Society, Teaching Matters, Rainbow After-School Programs, and Periwinkle. In addition, mentors and college liaisons from Teach for America, NYC Fellows, Lehman, Mercy, Pace, City College and Region.

Parent/School Support

Workshops provide parents with skills necessary to support and reinforce school academic initiatives. The following training and support programs are available to the parents: parenting skills, social services, medical issues, technology classes and coaching courses to improve parent language skills.
