School Mission Statement

The mission of P.S. 132 is to engage children in learning that requires them to become critical and reflective in their thinking and published works. This will be accomplished by ensuring that ALL students are proficient in ALL subject areas while simultaneously building strong character.

Principal's Statement

PS 132X is committed to creating a community of children to be competitors in a global society who go and change their generation. We are committed to exposing children to the nuances of the techno-world and imbedding it into their daily learning so that it will have a profound affect on their academic and social growth. This commitment will provide them with the necessary foundation to be successful in their future endeavors.

Special Academic Programs

To enrich and support learning, we provide the following services: Newton Learning provides early childhood tutorial; Princeton Review provides upper elementary tutorial services; Rigby Running Records, ECLAS, and DRAS are administered consistently; Balanced Literacy and Mathematics; and Arts instruction. Saturday Academy for grades 2 - 5.

Extracurricular Activities

Our 21st Century Grant has afforded us the opportunity to daily provide diverse activities; such as, drama, cheerleading, basketball, Spanish, Arts & Crafts, journalism, computer, etc. Our Project Arts Grant allows children to learn to play the following instruments: violin, alto saxophone, trumpet, flute, and clarinet.

Community Support

We have worked jointly with the 169th Street Community Health Center to provide medical services. Bronx Arts Ensemble provide dance and guitar lessons. The AUSSIE Educational organization assist us with providing a sound educational program. We have partnered with our feeder day care centers to ensure seamless instruction.

Parent/School Support

Dr. Jeff Gardiere provides monthly parenting workshops. While Dr. Fairest Hill of Youth on the Move, Inc. provide workshops for students. Turn Around for Children provide full-time mental health services. In addition, we have monthly Family Fun Nights.
