School Mission Statement

Our mission is to educate every child in a supportive, nurturing learning environment. P.S. 140 will be a child-centered school. We will create a school that offers educational excellence and establishes high expectations that will empower all students. Working with parents, we will develop skills, knowledge and positive attitudes necessary to reach the students' full potential. We are infusing balanced instruction established by the New York City and New York State Standards.

Principal's Statement

The Eagle School is committed to being a child-centered school. Assessing the academic needs of our students assists us in planning for meaningful and appropriate instruction. We utilize multicultural balanced literacy and Math programs. We participate in an array of 60 minute Professional Development to continue to increase our knowledge and refine the many skills that are needed to educate our children. We firmly believe that we must be a community of learners. The community includes our Administration, Kips Bay Boys and Girls Club, teachers, parents, and students. Together we will continue to fully embrace all of our Children First Initiatives.

Special Academic Programs

The following programs & initiatives support our instructional programs: Project Arts--Musical chorus, " Studio in Schools", Lego Robotics team, Kips Bay Club, Kaplan tutoring, Fordham Technology Program, Great Leaps, IBM'S KidSmart PG, AUSSIE Consultant, School Violence Prevention/Leadership Program, and Three S.E.S. After- School Programs.

Extracurricular Activities

Kips Bay Boys and Girls Clubs, Leadership Inc., Boys Basketball, Girls Cheerleading, Chess Club, and Lego Robotics.

Community Support

Woodstock Library; Bank Street College; Lehman College Writing Project; Columbia University; McGraw Hill; and the 42nd Precinct

Parent/School Support

Learning Leaders; Parent Workshops; Multicultural Assembly Programs; Project Liberty; EVEN START - ESL & GED classes for parents registered in the Morrisania EVEN START program; Family Literacy; and our family violence prevention program--"SURVIVE". Additionally, we offer a family literacy program called E.P.I.C.
