School Mission Statement

Supported by its parents, staff, and community resources, Intermediate School 151, the Lou Gehrig Academy, is a diverse school structured to meet the needs of all students by providing a high-quality educational program that fosters appreciation, acceptance and a spirit of cooperation. Excellence in teaching and learning is paramount to our efforts to maximize the intellectual, emotional, and physical growth of our students.

Principal's Statement

Intermediate School 151 is a small school of approximately 300 students in grades six through eight. The small student population ensures that we will be able to provide special support services to all students. The school has implemented a comprehensive reading and mathematics program. We expect that student performance will continue to demonstrate an improvement again this year. Teachers and support personnel are working collaboratively to ensure that all students receive quality instruction and that appropriate academic intervention services are provided.

Special Academic Programs

IS 151 is collaborating with Teachers College in implementing their Reading and Writing Workshop model into our Literacy classes. Our school is one of only 22 middle schools in New York City to participate in the I Teach - I Learn laptop initiative, which will provide each student with a personal laptop to utilize in each of their classes.

Extracurricular Activities

The school offers many extended day academic remedial and enrichment programs in Literacy, Mathematics, and ESL. In addition student have the opportunity to participate in recreational activities: Music, Art, Drama, Basketball, Chess, Computers, Mock Trial, and Dance.

Community Support

The Sports and Arts Foundation provides an after-school academic and recreation program every day. Graham Windham provide support in the area of attendance improvement and family counseling. The school is an OST site, which provides programs for youth on holidays and during vacation periods.

Parent/School Support

There is an active Parents Association at IS 151. Meetings have been scheduled for both the morning and the evening in order to maximize attendance.
