Special Academic Programs

P.S. 175's special academic programs include the Schoolwide Enrichment Model, AUSSIE Literacy, Everyday Math, Impact Mathematics, Math A, Regents Earth Science, Greenkill Environmental Center, Lincoln Center Institute and Student Government. In addition, we have a full time art teacher working with our kindergarten through 8th grade children.

Extracurricular Activities

Extracurricular activities include the Sports & Arts in Schools After School Program; CHAMPS Middle School Sports & Fitness League After School Program; Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Girl Scouts and Daisies; student volunteer program; Penny Harvest Project; food, clothing and toy drives; annual walk-a-thon; and art portfolio compilation.

Community Support

Partnerships include: New York City Botanical Garden, City Island Garden Club, The Island Current, Bartow-Pell Mansion, Lincoln Center Institute, NYC Police Department, City Island Community Center, American Legion, NYC Fire Department, and Pilot House.

Parent/School Support

Parent/School collaboration is made possible through our active School Leadership Team, strong Parent Teacher Association, active class parent program and an involved school guidance team. Our Parent Coordinator creates a welcoming environment for parents and facilitates the home-school connection.
