School Mission Statement

Community School 211 is a bilingual school committed to providing a high quality education to all students by meeting their emotional, social and educational needs. We maintain high academic standards and fully utilize the resources of our parents, professionals and the community. Thus, our environment enables future leaders to successfully manage the diverse challenges of this millennium.

Principal's Statement

C.S. 211 is a legendary school in Region 2. It maintains an environment where the social, emotional and academic needs of students are met and nurtured. Our entire school community, parents, students and staff act and speak as one. We are a magnet school of choice and many of our students willingly remain throughout ten years of their schooling. Our students are nurtured from the moment they enter in Pre-K to 8th grade graduation. Our pupils learn respect for each other and live it daily. A twenty year uniform policy, rules, limits, and respect are the underpinning of the school.

Special Academic Programs

Bilingual magnet program; Career awareness & Arts exposure program; Computer assisted instruction; Cookshop; After school programs which include Extended Day, Saturday Academy and SES/No Child Left Behind Program; a music program; Reading First Grant.

Extracurricular Activities

Extra and Intracurricular Activities: After school intramural sports program with the PAL, School Store/8th Graders, Eurhythmics, chorus, band, ballroom dancing, Sarah Lawrence Drama Program, City Center Program, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Mount Vernon Hotel Program and ASPIRA.

Community Support

We have partnerships with the PAL, Rosenthal Foundation, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Feld Ballet, American Museum of Natural History and the Westchester Conservatory of Music. We receive support through Sarah Lawrence College, the NYC Public Library, the NYC School Volunteers Program, Community Planning Board 6 and Gethsemane Baptist Church.

Parent/School Support

Parents participate in monthly PTA meetings/workshops, as classroom volunteers and assist with all school activities. A Parent Coordinator is assigned to assist parents. Parents participate in Nutrition Workshops at Cornell University, Learning Leaders Workshops, and ASPIRA bookclubs. Parents have representation on the SLT and the Safety Committee.
