School Mission Statement

Our mission is to cultivate lifelong learners, academic excellence, self confidence, and respect for our business and global communities through an interdisciplinary (business) curriculum.

Principal's Statement

Via an interdisciplinary business curriculum, this School of Entrepreneurial Studies fosters an environment where students learn business curriculum, core courses, and become life-long learners. By interrelating the school, the home, and the community, our students realize productive citizens become our future leaders. At Intermediate School 216 we truly believe in our mission and in our motto: "Not going to College is not an Option; going to college is the only option".
