School Mission Statement

The vision of the Mott Haven Village School is to cultivate a safe, supportive environment in which all students become independent, creative, and critical thinkers, who achieve high academic standards and become responsible, caring members of society.

The mission of the school community is to:

- Provide clear and consistent expectations,
- Assure student achievement through a unified curriculum aligned with the State Standards that meets the needs of diverse learners,
- Collaborate with parents and community members to strengthen students' personal, social and academic development,
- Infuse curriculum with authentic experiences in the arts and environmental studies.

Principal's Statement

The students, staff and families of Mott Haven Village School form a community of lifelong learners. Students from Pre-Kindergarten through fifth grade encounter a challenging standards-based curriculum designed to meet their needs and nurture their talents in academics and the arts. Students learn to work cooperatively in a quest for knowledge and understanding.

The culture and history of the neighborhood support the curriculum encouraging students to value their heritage and contribute to their community.

Special Academic Programs

A balanced literacy and mathematics program provide a comprehensive instructional program. Students participate in science, visual and performing arts. Collaboration with Black Rock Forest provides in-class and extracurricular programs in environmental studies.

Extracurricular Activities

Partnership with School in the Forest-Black Rock Forest; Center for Arts Education-DreamYard; TASC (The After School Corporation) After School Program; Bronx Arts Ensemble and New Visions provide enrichment activities and instructional support aligned with the State Standards.

Community Support

Partnerships with agencies including: TASC afterschool program and Breakaway summer camp administered by East Side House Settlement; Cooperation with St. Ann's Church after school program; Cooperation with Parks Department in use of parks spaces.

Parent/School Support

Parent/School collaboration consists of parents as active partners. Parents are invited to participate in all aspects of the school community. Parent Activities include: Family Days, Curriculum and Arts Sharing Days, and Parent Workshop topics which include: Literacy, Mathematics, Test-Taking skills, Volunteer program, Asthma and Health, etc.
