School Mission Statement

Our mission is to be citizens of integrity who will become lifelong leaders through team building and servicing our community. We will uphold and honor the Eagle Academy as a nurturing learning environment where students, faculty, and community work together to develop academic excellence, ethical behavior, and personal responsibility. Guided by our core values of academic excellence, leadership, character development, mentoring, integrity, and community service, the Eagle Academy will make a difference, not only in our lives, but in our communities.

Principal's Statement

"Excellence", both in character and scholarship, opens doors and provides a bridge to equality. It is on this premise that the Eagle Academy for Young Men has been developed. This 9th-12th grade school is a partnership between its students, administrators, teachers, parents, mentors, and community supporters all focused and committed to its guiding principles of academic excellence, leadership, character development, mentoring, integrity, and community service.

Special Academic Programs

The Eagle Academy has a Saturday Institute as part of its academic curriculum. The Saturday Institute is designed for students to participate in a variety of workshops that focus on social development. Examples include financial literacy, health and wellness, and cultural literacy.

Extracurricular Activities

The Eagle Academy offers students an Extended Day program where students participate in extracurricular activities that include a martial arts program, trumpet instruction, debate team, and poetry enrichment.

Community Support

The Eagle Academy is sponsored by One Hundred Black Men, a community based organization of professionals with a four decade record of mentoring, civic involvement and leadership in public education.

Parent/School Support

We have a number of parents involved in our PTA. Many parents also volunteer to assist in facilitating special events and field trips.
