School Mission Statement

The Mott Hall V School is dedicated to developing future leaders in Math, Science and Technology by providing a world-class education that prepares students for college and higher learning. A progressive curriculum consisting of special courses, additional course of studies, seminars, and special enrichment electives is offered in a personalized, caring and student centered environment. •To provide an academically rigorous education that has many enriched and extended intellectual learning experiences inside and outside the school building; •To develop within all students the qualities necessary to fulfill their future roles as leaders in Math, Science and Technology; •To instill in the students a “love of learning” that values universal intellectual standards such as deep, conceptual learning and independent thinking.

Principal's Statement

The culture of Mott Hal V is grounded in the belief that every student can achieve educational and life success, if the highest expectations are held for them, and the school staff, parents, faculty, and all members of the school community embody the same, shared values and expectations.

Special Academic Programs

Mott Hall V academic instruction focuses on challenging students to question, anticipate, and solve problems. Personal development, which is strongly emphasized in Mott Hall V, is built on a behavior code of Seven Character Themes: Respect; Responsibility; Honesty; Integrity; Compassion; Generosity; and Fairness.

Extracurricular Activities

Extra-curricular Activities:

- Chess
- Vision program
- CSI Investigations
- Yearly retreats
- Experiential trips to support classroom learning
- College Tour(s)
- Golf

Community Support

Mott Hall V is a collaborative project with Los Padres Foundation LLC, and Replications Inc., a not for profit organization that has created 16 small schools in New York City. Mott Hall V also has a partnership with the First Tee Golf Association of New York

Parent/School Support

Parent involvement is extremely important to the success of Mott Hall V. It is our hope to develop a strong Parent Organization for the school. We feel the parents will help to make all of our efforts successful. We hope to involve parents in the classroom and outside the classroom by using their expertise
