School Mission Statement

Our vision is to create life-long learners with the capacity to attain success in the world beyond secondary school. We will create an environment that trains students in academics and social awareness. As critical thinkers, they will contribute to their community through internships and through service learning.

Principal's Statement

With the goal of education as a preparation for the future, we strive to develop students' strengths and work on their weaknesses. Our success on standardized tests (98.2% of our students who took Regents examinations in June achieved passing grades) will open doors to special opportunities.

All of our children are expected to attend post-secondary schools ranging from 2 year technological colleges to highly competitive Universities.

Partnerships include Colleges and Business.

Special Academic Programs

College Prep Program with the University of Vermont and Vassar College. Summer Enrichment Courses and After school Programs at Bronx Zoo, Cornell Weill Program, Helix Program. AP Classes in: Calculus, Chemistry, English Language and Literature and Composition, Spanish Language and Literature. MORE TO COME

Extracurricular Activities

National Honor Society, Student Government, AIDS Walks, Breast Cancer Walk for the Cure, Chess Club. All campus activities are open to CIMS students.

Community Support

Corporate: JetBlue, BestBuy
Higher Education: UVM, Vassar College, Smith College, Fordham University, Lehman College, Bronx Community College

Community Based Organizations: SOBRO, Foundation for Excellent Schools, Consortium For Educational Excellence Through Partnerships

Parent/School Support

Our Parent Coordinator is in touch with parent via telephone and E-mail. Send your e-mail address to be added to the list. We have an active Parent Association that meets monthly.
