School Mission Statement

Vision Statement: "C.I.S. 303, The Leadership and Community Service Academy, is a nurturing community of life long learners who are devoted to self-development, the value of achievement, and the willingness to do one's best."

Principal's Statement

As principal I have the honor of watching our students' work to make their goals a reality; it is this process that makes my job so rewarding and our school so successful. We challenge students to remember that their daily decisions determine whether their goals a reality or remain a fantasy. We teach students that, "real leaders are ordinary people with extraordinary determination."

Special Academic Programs

In addition to daily instruction, students at 303 have an opportunity to participate in electives on Fridays some these activities include: Chorus, Dance, Cooking, Baseball, and Yearbook. Students also have an opportunity to participate in the Specialized High School Preparatory Course, and the "ABC" - A Better Chance - Program.

Extracurricular Activities

Community Service promotes civic involvement and instills pride in helping others. Student Government addresses student issues and plans school wide events. Project STOP offers peer mediation & conflict resolution. Project Scale allows students to engage in activities such as: fencing, cheerleading, volleyball, and basketball.

Community Support

Morris Heights Health Center has a clinic housed at our academy. Columbia University offers counseling & mentoring programs. Saint Barnabas Hospital provides dental check-ups. Helen Keller Foundation supplies free eye exams & prescription glasses. Collaboration with Bronx Community College provides support for our Science teachers.

Parent/School Support

Our Parent-Teacher Association is actively involved in the overall school environment. The PTA elicits strong parent involvement and organizes parent volunteers for academy celebrations, class field trips, and other functions. The parent-run General Office Store supplies students with classroom materials at minimal cost.
