School Mission Statement

PS 306 is a multicultural school community with high expectations. We provide all students with rigorous standards-based instruction in a safe, nurturing environment. A solid foundation in literacy and mathematics is the force driving our student-centered instruction. Our school, in partnership with families and the community, develops lifelong learners and leaders for the 21st century.

Principal's Statement

Our vision is to see all our children in the 306 community become life-long learners by facilitating the development of their strengths, and fostering their talents, while upholding the highest academic standards. By creating a support system of teachers, family and community, we can motivate our children to become self-directed learners valuing both their education and their community.
