School Mission Statement

CIS 313x The School of Leadership Development, seeks to create a safe and nurturing environment that encourages and helps our students develop leadership skills through peer mediation and conflict resolution skills. It is important for all stakeholders to become an intricate part of the education of our students. We believe that in order to provide our students with a well rounded education the staff, students, parents SES providers and CBO's must all contribute to the planning and implementation needed to acquire the desired outcomes. We seek to develop leaders that are culturally diverse and tolerant of others. We strive for our students to become productive citizens who will continue to grow academically, socially and emotionally.

Principal's Statement

C.I.S. 313 is a new and unique school which incorporates leadership training and practices through academic studies program. The school prepares students to take on the leadership roles necessary for success. Leadership training is infused throughout the curriculum and the exploration and application of leadership skills is encouraged. The school site is the center of expertise. As such, C.I.S. 313 believes in empowering its students, building their strengths and teaching them responsibility, all within a well-integrated curriculum. Students will become involved in apprenticeships and service learning projects.
