School Mission Statement

The mission of Bronx International High School is to serve a diverse, multi-lingual student population of recent immigrants to the United States. We seek to provide each student with a language-rich learning experience that moves them to a point where they can read, write, and communicate effectively in English and their native language. The international approach brings together students from all over the world and moves them effectively towards fluency in English while equipping them to meet the standards for graduation.

Principal's Statement

- We serve students from over thirty different countries around the world
- Students learn through hands on research projects that bring learning to life
- Students work together in small groups
- Every class challenges students to use and develop their language skills
- All students have the opportunity to participate in career internships
- Students learn to use computer technology
- Over 90% of students from International High Schools partnership graduate and go on to college
