School Mission Statement

Our goal is to provide exemplary educational experiences that consistently challenge all learners to master standards-based content and skills; to develop personal qualities that enhance character and growth; and, in partnership with the home and community, to foster productive participatory citizenship.

Principal's Statement

In partnership with families and community-based organizations, we maintain a safe school for active teaching and learning where individuals demonstrate excellence and integrity with respect and dignity for themselves and others. We enable all students to further develop the knowledge, skills and habit of mind necessary to work or pursue lifelong education after graduating from Evander.
