School Overview

"Our focus at I.S. 68 is building leadership skills in our students in order to prepare them for college and a career. We utilize ""The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People"" by Steven Covey as a guide. The habits include being proactive, setting goals, prioritizing, collaborating with others, having a positive attitude, and taking good care of yourself. Students also benefit from various trips, projects and partnerships. For example, through our partnership with the Brooklyn District Attorney's Office, students have opportunities to participate in mock trials, meet with judges, and participate on the radio show ""Legal Lives."" Parents appreciate Isaac Bildersee's academy structure, which includes: Academy of Entrepreneurship and Law; Academy of Urban Planning and Environmental Design; and Academy of Global, American, and Community Connections."
