School Overview

P.S. 138 truly believes that all students can learn if they are properly taught. With this motto, P.S. 138's students are constantly being exposed to a variety of academic subjects. Our instructional strategies challenge and benefit all of our pupils. We offer an accelerated program designed to promote students' intellectual capacity in all subject areas. Accelerated students are instructed two to three grades above level. They are also involved in positive social activities after school, at school and in the community. P.S. 138 works collaboratively with local colleges in order to promote student learning by preparing students academically and socially. P.S. 138 works with community organizations before, during, and after school to provide students with many opportunities to excel in their respective subjects. Parents, teachers, and the entire community work collaboratively for the benefit of all of our pupils.
