School Overview

It is our vision to help guide students in the development of their character and academic potential so they can become teachers, leaders, and dreamers. We provide rigorous, challenging, and content-rich programs to prepare students for college and careers. Staff, parents, and students effectively communicate, collaborate, and support our high academic and behavioral standards. We have a dedicated PTA and use PupilPath, the One Call Now telephone messaging system, and our school website to work together as one towards the complete education of every child. I.S. 281 is a technology-rich school, and also has a well-developed Arts program incorporated within the school day. We offer free day and evening classes teaching English to our parents and other adults in the community.
