School Overview

"At Samuel Stern (P.S. 7), we provide a well-rounded education that works to support the growth of all children. In addition to our rigorous Common Core aligned academics, we offer unique learning opportunities through partnerships with outside organizations. One of our most important partnerships, Edible Schoolyard NYC, enables all of our students to participate in cooking and gardening classes. Through the use of our garden, students and families even have the opportunity to harvest their own vegetables! P.S. 7 has also, through the expertise of our partner organizations, developed strong extracurricular programming. We have a top notch music program, consisting of a concert and jazz band, a dance program created in conjunction with the National Dance Institute, and championship winning sports teams. ...
