School Overview

At J.H.S. 52, we believe students thrive in a small school environment where each child receives individualized attention in an area of academic concentration of their choice, either the sciences or visual and performing arts. Technology is incorporated into these programs through classroom laptops, SMART Boards, iPad programs, and other technology to best support student achievement. Curriculum in both academies is Common Core-aligned and designed by our staff to both challenge and meet the needs of our students. Parent meetings, workshops, and classes are held several times each month to assist and update families regarding the academic and emotional well-being of their
