School Overview

Collaborative Academy of Science, Technology, and Language Arts Education Middle School (CASTLE) offers a personalized learning environment that ensures that all students are supported and are challenged academically, socially, and emotionally. Our students like the support they receive from our educators. We prepare our students for life after middle school and high school. Parents appreciate that we offer challenging academic programs that provide students with a well-rounded education. We believe that our students are best developed when supported by the collaborative efforts of educators, parents, community organizations, and students.
