School Overview

Located in the Theater District, the Professional Performing Arts School (PPAS) partners with top rated New York City arts organizations to provide high quality training in the performing arts and a competitive academic program. In partnership with the theater company Waterwell, middle school students receive 90 minutes daily of acting, dance, and voice classes. The arts program emphasizes rigor and discipline alongside curiosity and generosity. Our curriculum provides students with the artistic and personal skills to be leaders in the field and in whatever profession they choose to pursue. Our academic and arts programs prepare students for competitive high schools. PPAS middle school students are guaranteed a placement in one of the PPAS high school arts programs if they choose to stay. We provide a middle school experience that is well-rounded and considers every child's interests, learning styles, and needs. ...
