School Overview

J.H.S. 194 aims to educate the whole child by challenging all students academically, encouraging student voice, and supporting the opportunity for self-expression through a diverse Fine and Performing Arts department. J.H.S. 194 strives to support students academically, socially, and emotionally through our grade-level academies, each with a dean, an assistant principal, and two shared guidance counselors. We house a Beacon program on-site which expands the choice of after-school activities for students. In grade 6, students have the choice to explore two electives, while in the 7th and 8th grade they explore a single elective. Our Fine and Performing Arts department collaborates with numerous arts agencies throughout the city, including: New York City Center, Flushing Town Hall, Jazz from Lincoln Center, Magic Box, and the Leap Program. ...
