School Overview

J.H.S. 202 is a diverse NYC middle school. Our teachers are regularly trained in new, innovative teaching methods that will meet the needs of our varied student population, with a focus on instructional technology. Our teachers are provided with Apple laptops and iPads to support differentiated instruction. Every classroom is equipped with laptops and wireless printers. We recently renovated the library for use as a research center for our students, as well as a professional development room for our staff.
