School Overview

"J.H.S. 226, aptly named the Virgil I. Grissom Middle School, focuses on exploratory learning, which allows our students to ""reach for the stars."" The school is organized into four learning communities which allow us to better meet the needs of each student through cognitively demanding experiences aligned to the Common Core Learning Standards. The Discovery and Explorations Academy is a hub for 6th graders, which allows students opportunities to explore the Junior High School experience through academic rigor, discipline, creativity, and culture. The Humanities Academy for Performing Arts showcases the talent in our youngsters with quarterly displays in music, art, dance, poetry, and drama. Visionaries Academy for Science and Technology engages students in developing projects in web design, air and space exploration, PowerPoint, and DNA Splicing. ...
