School Overview

"Hawtree Creek Middle School û M.S. 297 (HCMS) is a new small school located in South Ozone Park with a strong focus on high school and college readiness. Instruction is differentiated on a daily basis and provides students with consistent opportunities to collaborate in small groups and engage in academic discussion. Academics and behavior are framed around the school's character values: Leadership, Collaboration, Perseverance, and Community, creating a strong, positive school culture. Parent involvement and support is very strong, and parents take great pride in their child's education at HCMS. One significant aspect of the school is the Student-Led Conferences, which take place twice a year. During a Student-Led Conference, students present a portfolio of their work from each content area and explain their process of learning to their parents/families. ...
